

Communist University 2017

Timetable

	10am-12.30pm	Lunch	2pm-4.15pm	Break	4.45pm-7pm
Saturday August 12	Registration and access from 12.30pm		After the June 8 general election Jack Conrad		Marx and Engels and the democratic breakthrough August J Nimitz Jr
Sunday August 13	How revolutionary were the bourgeois revolutions? Neil Davidson		Lenin, Bolshevism and the tsar's duma August J Nimitz Jr		Challenges ahead for global capitalism Michael Roberts
Monday August 14	Anti-Zionism is not anti-Semitism Moshé Machover Tony Greenstein		Political economy of Stalinism Hillel Ticktin		Bolshevism, soviet elections and the Constituent Assembly August J Nimitz Jr
Tuesday August 15	The real alternatives when socialism in one country seemed inevitable Hillel Ticktin		The lessons of the October Revolution Chris Knight		1967 and all that: the Sexual Offences Act Mike Macnair
Wednesday August 16	The 'rule of law' delusion Mike Macnair		The revolutionary sex Camilla Power		The colonisation of Palestine in historical perspective Moshé Machover
Thursday August 17	Computer says no Paul Demarty		Women and the Russian Revolution Anne McShane		Trump and the Middle East Yassamine Mather
Friday August 18	Popularism, nationalism and the new/old politics in Europe Kevin Bean		The birth of Soviet healthcare Bob Arnott		The Bolshevik problem of breaking from capitalism Marc Mulholand
Saturday August 19	The Sunday Worker and the National Left Wing Movement Lawrence Parker		Bolshevism vindicated Jack Conrad	3.30pm-4pm Evaluation of Communist University 2017	